Kaal Bhairav Jayanti

Kalabhairav Jayanti also known as 'Mahakaal Bhairavashtami' or 'Kala Bhairav Ashtami' is a Hindu festival dedicated to Lord Kaal Bhairav, the fearsome form of Lord Shiva. It is observed on the 'ashtami' (8th day) of the 'Krishna Paksha' (the period of waning phase of moon) during the Hindu lunar month of 'Kartik'. In the Gregorian calendar, this date corresponds to the months of mid-November to mid-December. The festival of Kalabhairav Jayanti celebrates the birth anniversary of Kala Bhairav, the Hindu God of Time. This day is considered to be more auspicious when it falls on a Tuesday or Sunday as these days are dedicated to Lord Kala Bhairav.

Sri Bhairav is a manifestation of Lord Shiva in his Rudra form - the dreadful form, from which even death (Kaal) fears. Kala Bhairava is conceptualized as the Guru of the planetary deity Saturn. Sri Bhairava is known as Vairavar in Tamil where he is often presented as a Grama Devata or folk deity who safeguards the devotee on all eight directions (ettu tikku). Known in Sinhalese as Bahirawa, he protects treasures.

Lord Bhairava is the main deity worshipped by the Aghora sect.

The fast, undertaken on this day, is fruitful, believed to be a protection from direct and indirect obstacles in life. Lord Bhairav's conveyance is a dog. On Bhairav Jayanti Lord Bhairav is worshipped in the temples. His carrier Dog is fed with milk, curd and sweets. Devotees gather in temples early morning to seek the blessings of Lord Bhairava.

BENEFITS OF KALA BHAIRAVA POOJA

1. Kala Bhairava is a highly merciful Lord. He purifies the mind and heart of the devotees. Kala Bhairava pooja is capable of transforming a person both intellectually and spiritually.
2. Helps win over the enemies and secure a fearless life feeling the protective shield of the Lord all around.
3. The worshipper gets to enjoy all materialistic comforts and happiness and gets all the boons he seeks from the Lord granted.
4. The Lord blesses the worshipper with the power to predict the future and therefore plan the life in a safe and secure manner escaping the impending dangers.
5. The devotee acquires the power to control the time and events in life thereby staying at peace with full self-confidence to fight the odds of life.
6. Enhances performance in every front of life and gives better time management skills to the devotees
7. Those who face repeated hurdles in their ventures can get over them easily with the blessings of the Lord and attain victory in their life.

Legend

As per a story in Skanda purana he manifested in the midst of a dispute which arose between Lord Shiva, Lord Vishnu and Lord Brahma. Once, there was a controversy between Lord Brahma and Vishnu. The point of difference was as to who, of the two, is superior. To decide the issue, saints, rishis and sages were summoned, who after deliberations pronounced that in fact there is a special power, Brahma and Vishnu are forms of the same. Vishnu was satisfied but Brahma could not agree with the judgment of the jury. Lord Siva could not tolerate this defamation of the jury; he instantly appeared in the form of Bhairav and smashed the pride of Brahma. Legend has it that Lord Shiva cut the fifth head of Lord Brahma on this day and performed penance. In this form Shiva is believed to punish the sinners.
